This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines it has not been reported.

Did you work during 2022...and did your family earn less than $53,057 in 2022? Did a child live with you for more than half of 2022?

If so, you may be eligible for the Earned Income Credit. It's a Federal benefit for both married and single parents who worked either full or part-time during part or all of the year.

HOW TO GET YOUR MONEY

Getting your Earned Income Credit takes just two simple steps:

1. File a Federal Income Tax Return (1040 or 1040A).
2. Fill out "Schedule EIC" and attach it to your tax return.

If you're eligible, you'll either owe less in taxes....or the government will mail you a check! You can get the Earned Income Credit even if you don't owe income tax.

DOES EARNED INCOME CREDIT REDUCE OTHER GOVERNMENT BENEFITS?

In most all cases, NO. Some families eligible for the EIC also receive benefits under other government programs, including AFDC, Food Stamps, SSI, Medicaid, and public or subsidized housing. Only in rare cases will the EIC lower benefits in these other programs.
